Digital scams drain Rs. 48.3 lakh

Yoga teacher lured by a gift of 50,000 Pounds, loses Rs. 10.9 lakh

Mysuru, Sept. 28 (RK&BCT)- In a series of cybercrime incidents, three Mysuru residents — including a yoga instructor — collectively lost Rs. 48.3 lakh to online fraudsters.

Despite repeated awareness drives by the Police and the media, educated professionals continue to fall prey to digital scams promising quick money and rewards.

Yoga instructor duped by 'foreign student'

A Yoga teacher from Vivekanandanagar was conned by a man who posed as a foreign student. The fraudster, identifying himself as 'Tommy Allison', contacted her after seeing her Yoga training advertisements on YouTube and Facebook.

Claiming to be a German national interested in joining a two-month course, he promised to gift her 50,000 Pounds (approx. Rs. 59 lakh) as a token of appreciation, apart from paying the course fee.

However, he said he was unable to transfer the training fee directly due to some 'banking restrictions' and offered to send the gift amount instead, provided the Yoga teacher first paid a "customs clearance fee" to release the funds.

Believing him, the instructor transferred Rs. 10.9 lakh in multiple instalments to the account 'Tommy Allison' provided. When he demanded more money, she grew suspicious and investigated, only to discover she had been duped.

She promptly lodged a complaint at the Cyber Crime, Economic Offences, and Narcotics (CEN) Crime Police Station.

Rs. 29.4 lakh lost in online trading fraud

In another incident, a Gokulam resident fell victim to an elaborate online trading scam after responding to an Instagram advertisement. Convinced by the platform's claims of high returns, he invested Rs. 29.4 lakh over time.

Once the money was transferred, all communication ceased and no returns were credited to his account. Realising the fraud, he reported the case at the CEN Crime Police Station, seeking action against the culprits.

Rs. 8 lakh conned in movie review job

A woman from T.K. Layout was lured by a fraudulent scheme that promised payment for reviewing and rating movies. Initially, she received Rs. 6,000, which built her trust.

Encouraged, she transferred Rs. 8 lakh in four instalments, expecting larger payouts.

When no further payments were received and the platform became unresponsive, she realised that she had been cheated.

She then filed a complaint at the CEN Crime Police Station, where an investigation is underway.

These three cases highlight the growing sophistication of cyber fraud and the need for heightened vigilance.

Police are urging the public to verify online offers thoroughly, avoid making advance payments and be vigilant about suspicious activities to prevent falling victim to such scams.

BABU'S BANTER

By M.V. Nagendra Babu

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

DHARMA MUST BE PROTECTED: King Pareekshit comes upon a one-legged bull and a sad cow during his digvijaya. The bull is dharma devata incarnate and the cow is Mother Earth. In Kalidasa's Raghuvamsa too, the earth is portrayed as a cow, said Valayapet Ramachariar in a discourse. The four oceans are its teats. King Dileepa is shown by Kalidasa as having taken care of the divine cow Nandini. He seeks out the best pastures for her to graze. He swats flies on her back, scratches her back when she feels itchy, and allows her to wander at will, without restricting her movements. There is a circle of dependency between everything in this world. When we protect cows, they give us milk. Milk and its byproducts are needed for performing yagas. When we perform yagas, Indra is pleased, and gives us copious rains. When there is an abundance of rain, crops thrive. Pastures are nourished by the rains, and cows feed to their heart's content, and give us plenty of milk, and thus the cycle goes on. So, protecting cows leads to the welfare of a kingdom. Dileepa, an ancestor of Rama, knew this.

But here before Pareekshit's eyes is a cow that looks unhappy. So, he asks the cow the reason for its sadness. The cow is sorry because those with dharma are few in number. A man in the guise of a king had been beating both the bull and the cow, and now Pareekshit turns his attention to him and is ready to kill him. The man reveals that he is Kalipurusha. Kalipurusha falls at Pareekshit's feet and asks him to spare his life. Pareekshit says he should leave his kingdom at once. Adharma is Kalipurusha's close companion and therefore, there is no room for him in Pareekshit's kingdom. If Kalipurusha continues to live in Pareekshit's land, then adharma will have its way. That is something Pareekshit is determined to avoid.—In The Hindu

People selling their fingernail clippings online

Beijing: Fingernail clippings are usually discarded as trash, but according to Chinese traditional medicine, they are valuable ingredients in concoctions used to treat conditions like abdominal distension in children and tonsillitis.

Companies producing traditional Chinese medicine reportedly purchase fingernail clippings from schools and villages. They then wash it thoroughly before drying and grinding them into a fine powder that gets mixed into various medicinal products.

Chinese media recently reported that a Hebei woman was selling her fingernail clippings online, for 150 yuan ($21) per kilogram.

The use of human fingernails in Chinese traditional medicine had slowed since the 1960s, when the growing popularity of nail polish began tainting the "merchandise". Over time, other ingredients that provide similar effects were discovered, but fingernails never really went away. Apparently, they are making a comeback!

Teen 'grows' but shrinks in two weeks

Beijing: A 16-year-old spent $2,350 on growth therapy sessions over six months, but lost the 1.4 centimetres he had gained in just two weeks after quitting the therapy.

Limb lengthening surgery is a painful way of adding height, but those unwilling to go under the knife can opt for so-called 'non-invasive growth therapy". One Chinese teenager convinced his family to spend about 16,700 yuan ($2,350) on growth therapy sessions over a period of six months, but he was ultimately disappointed because the 1.4 centimetre he gained during that period of time vanished soon after the therapy stopped.

The boy's father said that the teen's height had increased from 165 cm to 166.4 cm in six months, but that extra 1.4 cm went away in the two weeks after the growth therapy ended.

Poor families in Bogadi pay for drinking water

Sir,

There are many low-income and poor families living in extremely small rental tenements around the Bogadi area.

I was shocked to learn that the owners of these tenements have not provided direct water connections to their tenants, even though they themselves enjoy proper water connections.

As a result, these poor families are forced to pay money to buy drinking water. The water stored in their old and unclean overhead tanks, which haven't been cleaned for ages, is unfit for cooking or drinking, leaving them with no choice but to spend extra on safe water.

Is it not the duty of the house owners to ensure basic amenities like direct water connections for their tenants?

I sincerely hope the Town (Pattana) Panchayat takes note of this serious issue and comes forward to help these hapless families.

45 stalls celebrate Kodagu's coffee culture as top growers honoured

Madikeri, Sept. 28 (PS&BCT)- The Coffee Dasara celebration held on Wednesday at Gandhi Maidan, Madikeri, captivated visitors with a vibrant display of coffee culture, featuring 45 thematic stalls and a strong message of solidarity with coffee growers grappling with persistent challenges.

The event was jointly organised by the Madikeri Dasara Committee, Madikeri Dasara Cultural Committee and the Coorg Planters Association inside the Sakamma Auditorium, named after Karnataka's first woman coffee entrepreneur. The coffee mega event was executed and coordinated by H.T. Anil.

Inaugurating the celebration, Madikeri MLA Dr. Mantar Gowda highlighted that despite favourable market prices, coffee growers continue to face serious hardships.

"Labour shortages, climate fluctuations, and market instability are major hurdles, especially for small-scale producers. We must unite to tackle these challenges," Dr. Mantar Gowda urged.

Dr. Mantar Gowda noted that Kodagu district accounts for nearly 75 percent of Karnataka's coffee production and stressed that Coffee Dasara, which began last year, should become an annual platform to foster dialogue and development.

Coffee Board Chairman Dinesh Devavrinda underscored the need for insurance coverage for coffee crops, similar to schemes available for arecanut and pepper. He pointed out that coffee is cultivated not only in Karnataka's Kodagu, Hassan and Chikkamagalur districts but also across the north-eastern States and encouraged farmers to take pride in their profession.

Kodagu Deputy Commissioner Venkat Raja reaffirmed the administration's commitment to supporting farmers, promising to act as a bridge between growers and policy-makers. Last flight, lasting memories...

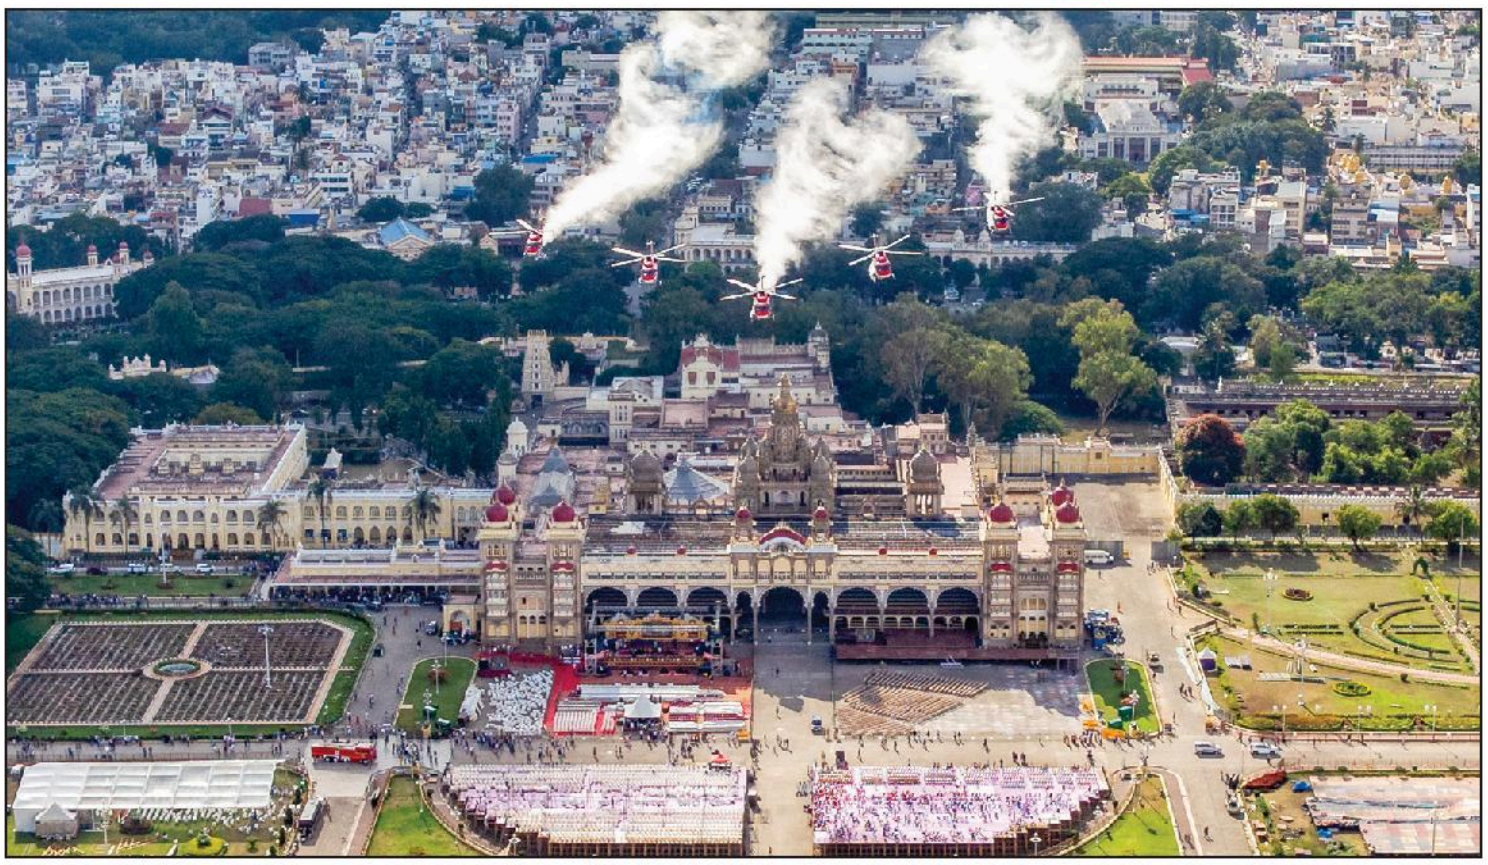
Sarang Team's grand farewell performance wows Mysuru



Mysuru, Sept. 28 (PM&BCT)- The skies above Mysuru lit up with breathtaking aerial artistry last evening as five Indian Air Force (IAF) helicopters from the elite Sarang Helicopter Display Team performed a dazzling air show at the Bannimantap Parade Grounds, enthralling thousands of spectators.

The Sarang team — based in Coimbatore, Tamil Nadu — executed a series of jaw-dropping, high-speed manoeuvres, trailing plumes of coloured smoke and crafting intricate formations in the twilight sky. Their synchronised movements resembled fish gliding through a giant aquarium, blending precision with poetic grace.

Painted in vibrant peacock motifs of red, white and blue, the Dhruv Advanced Light Helicopters soared like celestial dancers, drawing roars of applause as they emerged dramatically from behind the main gates, their rotor blades thundering across the grounds.

Over a spellbinding 25-minute display, the team showcased 16 distinct formations, including the dolphin leap, Sarang split, heart design, arrowhead, wine glass, double arrow cross and cross-over break. Each daring manoeuvre drew gasps of wonder and admiration from the packed galleries.

One of the evening's most memorable moments came when the helicopters painted the sky with trails of smoke to form the English letter "I," followed by a stunning rangoli-style display of red and white smoke.

In another high-adrenaline sequence, a lone helicopter streaked through the centre with a blazing red smoke trail. In contrast, four others dispersed dramatically in different directions, adding a surge of excitement to the spectacle.

The show reached a thrilling moment when two helicopters flew head-on at blistering speed before performing a breathtaking level cross, sending hearts racing. A heart-shaped smoke trail marked the emotional high point of the evening, drawing a wave of cheers and applause from the audience.

The grand finale, led by Group Captain S.K. Mishra along with a team of ten skilled pilots, was a masterclass in aerial choreography. This was the Sarang team's concluding performance for this year's Dasara.

Many also watched from surrounding terraces. The helicopters had flown in from the Mysore Airport at Mandakalli.

Surya Kiran's high-octane aerial manoeuvres on Oct. 1

Mysuru, Sept. 28 (PM&BCT)- From the graceful loop and thrilling barrel roll to gravity-defying inverted flying and the crowd-favourite DNA manoeuvre, the Indian Air Force's (IAF) Surya Kiran Aerobatic Team (SKAT) is set to captivate Mysuru on Oct. 1 with a spectacular air display at Bannimantap Parade Grounds.

Dubbed the 'Ambassadors of IAF,' SKAT will take to the skies at 4 pm, delivering a high-octane performance showcasing their signature manoeuvres and unmatched precision flying.

This will be the team's second-ever performance in Mysuru, following their memorable debut during 2023 Dasara. Flying the striking red-and-white Hawk Mk132 jets, the Surya Kiran team has earned worldwide acclaim for its breathtaking formations and seamless coordination. Spectators can expect a dazzling array of aerial stunts — from elegant loops and daring barrel rolls to upside-down inverted flying. Each display is a testament to the pilots' extraordinary skill, nerve, and teamwork.

The elite unit is currently led by Group Captain Ajay Dasharathi.

Entry to Parade Grounds will be restricted to pass and ticket holders. A rehearsal is on Sept. 30, though sources have confirmed public aren't allowed for security reasons.

Rotary West honours National Teachers Award-2025 winner

Mysuru, Sept. 28- Rotary Club of Mysore West felicitated K.S. Madhusudan, Primary School Teacher at Govt. Higher Primary School in Hinkal, Mysuru, on receiving the National Teachers Award - 2025 from the President of India Droupadi Murmu at a ceremony held at Rashtrapati Bhavan on the occasion of Teachers' Day.

One among the 45 recipients, he was selected for the Award for transforming a Government Primary School in Hinkal into a hands-on innovation hub where students experiment with robotics, drones, 3D printing and AI tools.

Club President Rtn. Devraj, Hon. Secretary Rtn. Rudresh, Rtn. (Prof.) K.C. Belliappa and Rtn. C.R. Hanumanth did the honours on behalf of the Rotary Club of Mysore West. Members of the Club and Teachers of Rotary Mysore West Schools attended the programme.

Speaking on the occasion, Madhusudan focussed on his life's mission of transforming Primary Education in the country. The idea was born out of his vision to create a space where innovation meets curiosity. He noticed that children understood concepts better when they experimented created on their own.

Towards achieving the mission, he started in 2019 what he called a C-Lounge (Camp, Create, Celebrate) within the Govt. Primary School in Hinkal, from his own resources/funds to give students a hands-on learning space beyond textbooks.

He was able to set it up completely by 2023. The facility allows children to experiment with robotics, drones, and AI while working on real-world projects like grey water purification systems, etc. C-Lounge integrates STEM education and ensures that every child, regardless of background, can bring their ideas to life.

Through this initiative his students participated and excelled in District, State and National level exhibitions, winning recognition for projects, sustainability and water purification.

His work transformed the lives of many students including those from rural and marginalised backgrounds. Under his mentorship children once at risk of dropping out continued their studies with confidence, while others have gone on to higher education and international careers in technology.

Despite limited infrastructure, he has creatively overcome challenges by repurposing materials and building partnerships with NGOs and technology providers.

His vision is to expand C-Lounge into a Community Innovation Hub that will equip both students and village youth with 21st century skills.

Musical Extravaganza...

Sitar exponent Niladri Kumar and troupe performing at Mysore Palace.

Mysuru, Sept. 28 (SBD&BS)- A blend of vocal, music and dance followed by a dance ballet, created a world of musical extravaganza, at Dasara Cultural programmes organised in front of Mysore Palace by Dasara Cultural Programmes Sub-Committee yesterday evening.

Sinchan Pandit, a popular playback singer, hailing from Dharwad, but settled in Mysuru after marriage, mesmerised the music connoisseurs with her scintillating concert titled - Bhava Lahari Geetha Gayana. She paid a perfect ode to the Wadiyars, with her soulful rendition of 'Kayo Sri Gowri...' the anthem of erstwhile princely State of Mysore, fine tuned into new age music. Unlike previous renditions, the addendum of the name of present titular head of the Mysore Royal Family Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar, while rendering the anthem, made it special.

The fast-paced rendition of 'Igiri Nandini Nandita Medini...' in awe of presiding deity Goddess Chamundeshwari, 'Deva Sri Ganesh' and 'Sojugada Sooji Mallige Madeva Nimma...' hailing Lord Mahadeshwara, cast a spell of devotion among the gathering. 'Dennana Dennana...' in reverence to Tulunada deities, struck a chord with the audience, who craved for the repeat of the song, which was humbly obliged by Sinchan Pandit.

'Ede Thumbi Haduvenu...' composed by the doyen of light music Mysore Ananthaswamy, 'Bala Bangara Neenu, Haneya Singara Neenu...' the hit number from thespian Dr. Rajkumar's classic 'Bangarada Manushya' and 'Bombe Elutaithe...' from Puneeth Rajkumar's 'Raajakumara', brought alive the father-son duo, to the applause of the gathering.

'Huttidare Kannada Nadalli Huttabeku...' originally sung by thespian actor Dr. Rajkumar in his movie 'Akasmika' turned out to be the showstopper, for the wave of emotions that touched hardcore Kannadigas in the audience.

Sinchan Pandit was accompanied by percussionists Venik, Mahendra, Krishna, Naveen, Rani, Varun, Pradeep, Ashwin and Neethu.

Internationally acclaimed Sitar exponent Niladri Kumar, presented a fusion music concert, with the able accompaniment of Louis Banks, Satyajit Talwalkar, Hrishikesh Majumdar and Shikarnath Kureshi on musical instruments.

Earlier Vid. Jagadish presented Nadaswara concert and the artistes of Benaka Dance Troupe, Bengaluru staged a dance ballet.

Food stalls eat into hotel business

Mysuru, Sept. 28 (BCT)- Mysuru's grand Dasara festivities, which officially began on Sept. 22, saw modest tourist inflow during the first few days, with local business activity remaining relatively subdued.

However, the launch of the Dasara Food Festival brought a dramatic shift in dining patterns, according to Mysuru Hotel Owners' Association President C. Narayanagowda.

Restaurants across the city reported a sharp decline in evening business — nearly 50 percent lower than usual after 4 pm, attributed to the overwhelming popularity of food stalls set up at key Dasara venues, including Maharaja's Grounds, JK Grounds, the Flower Show, Yuva Dasara venue and the Dasara Exhibition Grounds.

The Maharaja's Grounds alone hosted 160 food stalls, with 130 serving non-vegetarian and 30 offering vegetarian options. Similar trends were observed at other venues, where approximately 80 percent of stalls catered to non-vegetarian tastes, leaving only 20 percent for vegetarian offerings.

The food festivals resembled grand fairs, drawing thousands of visitors daily. With stalls integrated into nearly every cultural programme venue, regular restaurants experienced near-total disruption in business, Narayanagowda pointed out.

Coinciding with World Tourism Day on Sept. 27, the city witnessed a surge in tourist arrivals. From Sept. 27 to Oct. 2, hotel rooms in central Mysuru are fully booked — both online and through travel agents — while hotels along the Ring Road and in residential areas reported 80 percent occupancy, he said.

Restaurants and eateries bounced back after Sept. 27, experiencing heavy footfall and brisk business. The city's hospitality sector is now in full swing, catering to the influx of visitors drawn by Dasara's cultural and culinary attractions.

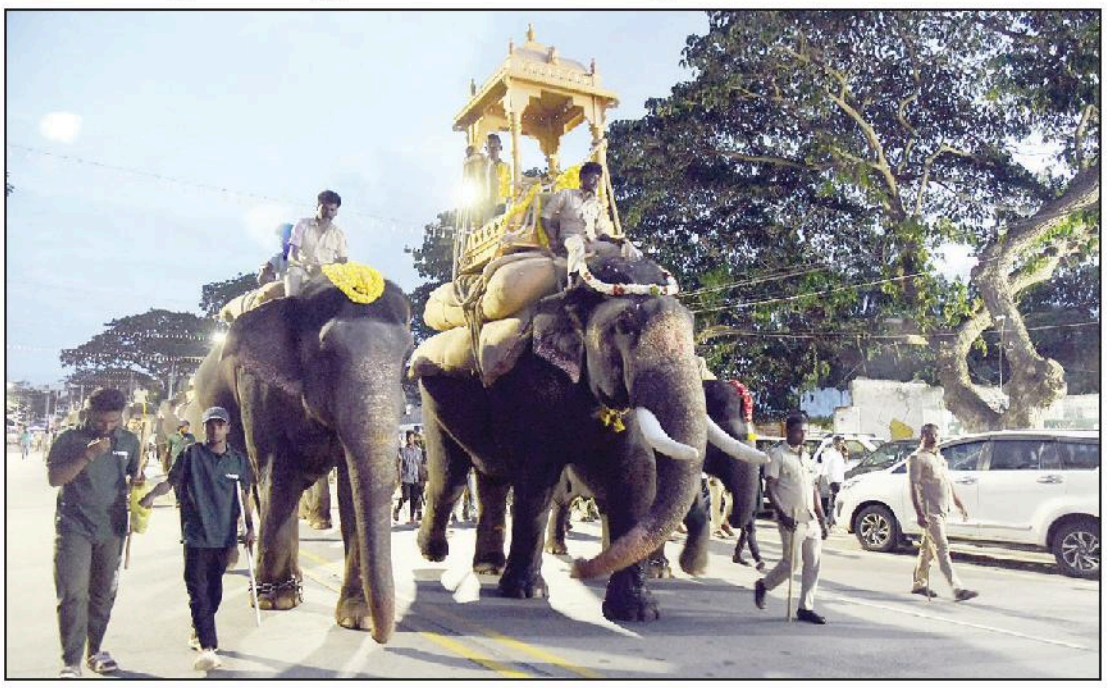
Dhananjaya carries wooden howdah on final day of weight training

Pattada Aane Srikanta panics on seeing bright lights, hearing loud sound



Mysuru, Sept. 28 (MTY&KS)- With Jumboo Savari to be held on Oct. 2, Vijayadashami Day, the final phase of weight carrying exercise ended yesterday with Dasara elephant Dhananjaya carrying the wooden howdah on Raja Marga from Mysore Palace till the Torchlight Parade Grounds in Bannimantap under the watchful eyes of Police and Forest Department personnel.

After Gaadhi-Namda was fastened on back of Dhananjaya, the wooden howdah was mounted on top of it and secured with ropes. Sand bags were then placed inside the howdah and Dhananjaya was led out of Palace through Balarama Gate at about 5.40 pm, with Kumki elephants Lakshmi and Hemavathi on either side and other elephants following Dhananjaya.

DCF Dr. I.B. Prabhu Gowda, City Police Commissioner Seema Latkar, DCPs R.N. Bindu Mani (Law and Order) and K.S. Sundar Raj (Crime and Traffic) and those deployed for security walked along with the elephants. They reached the Torchlight Parade Grounds at 7.05 pm.

A large crowd especially children and tourists, who had gathered on Raja Marga cheered for Dasara elephants and clicked photos of their favourite elephants. The crowd was constantly reminded to switch off the flash of their mobile phone cameras so that the elephants would not be distracted.

After the elephants reached the Torchlight Parade Grounds, they were given some time to relax and at about 7.30 pm, the elephants began to march back to Palace under Police security.

Loud sound, bright lights make Srikanta panic

Dasara elephant Srikanta, which has been deployed as the Pattada Aane (Royal Elephant) to take part in the rituals conducted by erstwhile Mysore Royal Family inside the Palace, panicked on hearing huge sounds from the speakers installed in front of the Palace where Dasara cultural programmes are being conducted and also on seeing the bright and dazzling lights.

Though Srikanta deviated from his route, he did not run helter-skelter. But someone, who had created a AI video of Srikanta running away had posted the same on social media, following which, Forest Department has warned of initiating legal action on such misleading videos.

On Sept. 25 evening, Srikanta was led through Aane Bagilu towards Kodi Someshwara Temple when huge sound blared from the speakers. Also, bright colourful lights on the stage made Srikanta panic a bit, who deviated into a park. The Mahout and Kavadi controlled Srikanta. A 20-second video showing the latter running away has gone viral on social media.

DCF Dr. I.B. Prabhu Gowda said, a few persons had created AI video of Dasara elephants and uploaded them on social media which is misleading and action will be initiated against such persons. The DCF has urged the public not to believe such videos and join hands with the Forest Department in making Jumboo Savari a success.
